

Production Associate

Brendan Ravenhill Studio is seeking a sharp, energetic, hard-working, and detail-oriented Production Associate to join our team. This is a fast-paced, hands-on opportunity to learn how a small design studio designs, markets, and manufactures high-end lighting fixtures. You'll be working with a small, passionate team of makers and designers who take great pride in what we do. The position is full time with benefits, and a studio provided lunch three days a week. All employees of the studio have access to the shop and tools after hours and on weekends.

Responsibilities

- Learn to build, pack, and help ship our chandeliers, pendants, and sconces.
- Assist the Production Manager in the timely completion of our weekly builds.
- Maintain sub-assembly inventory and a clean and organize our studio space.
- Take part in our creative Friday projects, where we take on in-house build projects and studio upgrades.
- Master our methods and standards in order to serve as the studio's final eye, and ensure that all the product we ship meets the high quality standards of the studio.
- Work symbiotically both with members of the production team, and with the Post Production Manager on a daily basis

Qualifications

- Basic Woodworking or construction knowledge and the ability to think with one's hands.
- A serious and passionate interest in efficiency and the way things are made.
- An eagerness to learn and master our esoteric building techniques.
- A high attention to detail.
- A professional demeanor.
- An ability to take initiative while learning new things.
- Ability to work as a member of the team and follow directions.
- The drive to constantly improve and develop methods, in turn bettering the department and studio as a whole.

This job is great for those looking for an entry-level position into the world of design and manufacturing. Prior experience or relevant education is a big plus but not a deal breaker. We value interest and attitude more than what you've done. If this sounds like you, please send your resume, cover letter, and portfolio to careers@brendanravenhill.com. Due to the large number of submissions, we may not respond to all inquiries. If this is your dream position, please impress us with a great cover letter, full of character and devoid of typos.

In your cover letter, please tell us a bit about who you are with the following questions:

- What's your favorite thing you recently built, and why?
- What drives you?
